COLLEGES OFFERING MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS
TO THE SEATTLE ACADEMY CLASS OF 2011

The Seattle Academy Class of 2011 received over $6 million in merit scholarship offers (not including any need-based aid) and will apply $1.3 million of that scholarship money to colleges and universities where enrolling.

Merit scholarships at the following colleges are not guaranteed, of course, but a combination of strength in certain applicant pools and willingness to listen to the advice of College Advising yielded scholarship offers from the schools below. Note that many students in the class also received offers of admission from colleges that do not offer merit scholarships.
